CONNECTING THREADS

Welcome to our Early Spring 2021 Catalog! In this issue, we're excited to feature three new exclusive collections: Main Street Mercantile, Stained Glass Window, and Abalone Batiks. The team is excited for the weather to warm, to be outside once again, and hope these collections inspire you in the same way.

Our mission is to make our craft accessible to the world, which has inspired us to take a hands-on approach from start to finish. We work directly with trusted manufacturers and designers to produce the very best, premium quilting cottons at affordable prices.

We also believe beautiful fabric starts with beautiful artwork. Our in-house team of passionate designers is always hard at work coming up with new designs tailored to quilters like you. We work closely with top, trusted mills to turn our designs into premium-quality quilting fabric you won't find anywhere else. We hope you're as excited as we are about Spring – what a year it's been. What a time to Create. Quilt. Love.

Welcome to our new Employee Interview Section! We wanted to share some of our behind-the-scenes happenings with our customers. In this edition, we are interviewing Patrice, Senior Textile Designer. Patrice is a leader in our design department and is responsible for many of the beautiful fabric designs you love.

HOW HAS YOUR LIFE/UPBRINGING INFLUENCED YOUR WORK?

My mom sewed clothes and costumes for me and my siblings when we were young. I can remember going to the fabric store with her to pick out the patterns and the fabrics. That was my favorite part. I always loved fashion and began sewing at a pretty young age.

WHEN DID YOU KNOW YOU WANTED TO BE AN ARTIST?

I never really knew I could be an artist. Growing up, even though I enjoyed art and making things, I wanted to be a doctor. When I got to college, I moved past the idea of being a doctor and decided that I actually wanted to be a dentist. I majored in biology and ran for office in the pre-dental society. I even worked for a dental lab post college. I realized that this career path wasn't for me when I was unable to achieve the grades I needed to get accepted into dental school. So I changed my major midway through to Fine Art. This led me to discover that a career in textiles was possible, and I ended up going to grad school for my MFA in Fashion Textiles.

That is how I became the textile artist I am today.

WHAT DO YOU LOVE MOST ABOUT YOUR WORK AS A TEXTILE DESIGNER?

Getting to create my own designs and being able to see them on products that people can use/wear.

When I have time to work on a project that comes from the heart, I enjoy that the most.”

HOW DO YOU STAY INSPIRED?

Creative burnout is a real thing and having to be creatively “on” all the time can be a challenge. Visiting museums, taking a trip, or even just sitting at a café to people-watch are some ways I get rejuvenated creatively. I also do a lot of research on current trends in design.

DO YOU STILL SEW? IS THERE A FAVORITE PROJECT YOU LIKE TO WORK ON?

Yes, I sew. There are many projects that I have worked on, from clothes to quilts, but my favorite projects are the ones I make as gifts for loved ones. To me, sewing is not fun when it's done production style, so when I have time to work on a project that comes from the heart, I enjoy that the most.

IS THERE A COLLECTION THAT YOU HAVE DESIGNED THAT IS MEANINGFUL FOR YOU?

Each collection I work on is meaningful in its own way. I'm constantly learning as I go, and I find that in each collection I develop, there is a lesson to be learned somehow.

WHAT DO YOU THINK SETS CT APART IN THE TEXTILE DESIGN WORLD?

All of our collections are one-of-a-kind and are not sold anywhere else. Our small but mighty in-house design team (me and one other designer) works around the clock to design and produce top quality quilting fabrics that our customers love.

Meet the CT team!

Beautiful fabric starts with beautiful artwork! Our in-house team of talented, passionate designers is always hard at work coming up with new designs tailored to quilters like you. Hover your phone camera over the QR code to learn more!
